

For over 30 years, the Sharing Brings Hope Consolidated Charitable Campaign has raised donations in your schools and offices. Every Spring, LAUSD's staff, teachers, and students, and their families contribute time, passion, and donations to the Sharing Brings Hope Campaign. LAUSD employees are generous, giving to people who really care about their schools, their communities and the people who live in them.

The Asian Pacific Community Fund (APCF) along with its network of 74 community organizations serve over 4.9 million people annually in a total of 47 Asian languages plus English and Spanish. As the only Asian and Pacific Islander community-based fund in Southern California, APCF focuses on providing culturally sensitive programs and services to meet the complex and diverse needs of the Asian and Pacific Islander community. www.apcf.org

The Brotherhood Crusade founded in 1968, has been dedicated to enhancing the quality of life for families and youth throughout Los Angeles. We provide free direct supportive services that include after school programs that address health, education, social welfare, economic development, and youth development issues. We promote health and wellness, enhanced educational opportunities and community food and cloth distributions. www.brotherhoodcrusade.org

EarthShare Our mission is to amplify impact by providing individuals, businesses, and nonprofits with inspiration and tools to work together for a just and sustainable world. www.earthshare.org

The Kathryn Kurka Children's Health Fund, also known as Kurka Children's Health Fund is strictly used for LAUSD students and LAUSD Nursing, Medical and Health and Human Services professionals in providing services to LAUSD students. Funds are used to purchase equipment and supplies for Nursing Services and LAUSD Medical and Vision Clinics, to provide professional development to ensure that Nursing, Medical and Health and Human Services staff have access to current health, medical, social, psychological, and scientific information to better serve LAUSD students. www.kurkachildrenshhealthfund.org

The LAUSD Employee Sponsored Scholarship Fund provides graduating seniors with financial assistance that allows them to enter colleges and universities. www.sharingbringshope.org

The Los Angeles Trust for Children's Health (The L.A. Trust) brings health and education together to eliminate healthcare inequities and achieve student wellness for all. The L.A. Trust serves as Los Angeles Unified's backbone health entity, bridging the gap between LAUSD, community clinics, mental health providers, advocacy groups and program partners to tackle collaboratively the urgent issues affecting the lives of young people. These issues include substance use prevention, oral health, nutrition, mental health, HPV prevention and sexual and reproductive health. The L.A. Trust has been instrumental in establishing seventeen Student and Family Wellness Centers to serve both student and community members. www.thelatrust.org

United Latinx Fund (ULF) is greater Los Angeles' leading foundation and philanthropic resource created for and by Latinx that transforms, uplifts, and empowers community. We work tirelessly to ensure that Los Angeles County's vulnerable populations receive culturally relevant resources needed to remain healthy, earn a living wage, attain secure housing, and maintain a respectable quality of life – all necessary for successful youth. Your generosity ensures that all Los Angeles residents are cared for, thank you! www.unitedlatinxfund.org

United Negro College Fund "A mind is a terrible thing to waste."® For more than seven decades, this principle has remained at the heart of UNCF, enabling us to raise more than $5 billion and help more than 500,000 students and counting not just attend college, but thrive, graduate, and become leaders. We do this in three ways: By awarding more than 10,000 students' scholarships, worth more than $100 million, each year. By providing financial support to 37 historically Black colleges and universities (HBCUs). And by serving as the nation's leading advocate for the importance of minority education and community engagement. www.uncf.org

United Teacher's Educational Foundation prepares, trains, and guarantees that teachers have the skills to best instruct their students. www.sharingbringshope.org

United Way of Greater Los Angeles is celebrating 100 years of helping our most vulnerable communities, working toward a future where every family has a home, every child gets a quality education, and every person can achieve success in our economy. We believe that every person, every child, and every family should not only receive relief when they are in crisis, but have the opportunity needed to live their best lives. We cannot achieve that vision for a stronger Los Angeles without YOU. Together, we can break the cycle of generational poverty and change the future for our children and generations to come. www.unitedwayla.org
